

VERGILIUS

Sarah Spence, Editor
University of Georgia

GUIDELINES

Vergilius is for all those who are interested in Vergilian Studies. The editor encourages scholarly submissions on all aspects of Vergil without restriction, including the poetry (literary, stylistic, or textual), characters, myths, topography, archaeology, art, religion, philosophy, history, earlier and later authors connected to Vergil, manuscripts, modern translations, as well as other areas listed under headings found in the annual Vergilian Bibliography published in this journal.

Vergilius invites the submission of books in the areas listed, whether or not Vergil appears in the title. Books received will be listed; some will be selected for review. Books for review should be sent to Professor Sarah Spence, Editor, Vergilius, Department of Classics, University of Georgia, 224 Park Hall, Athens, GA 30602-6203, USA.

Prospective contributors should submit manuscripts by email attachment to sspence@uga.edu. Our style is based on The Chicago Manual of Style, 14th edition. If the manuscript includes any Greek, it must be set in a Unicode font. Simultaneous submissions are not accepted.
